

Making Sense of Sense Making

How can middle and high school mathematics prepare all students for success? Find out how at USOE's new professional development based on NCTM's newest publication, Focus in High School Math: Reasoning and Sense Making. Don't miss this chance to come together with other mathematics professionals to examine classroom practices that promote reasoning and sense making through mathematically worthwhile tasks and classroom discourse.

Calendar of Activities

Introduction to Making Sense of Sense Making

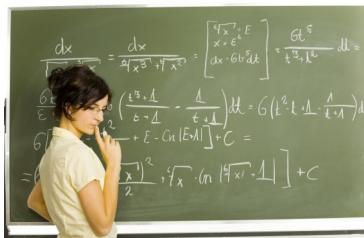

Friday	February 19	5:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.	Crystal Inn Downtown SLC
Saturday	February 20	8:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.	230 West 500 South Salt Lake City, UT 84101

Regional Meetings Focusing on Lesson Study (choose 1 of the following)

Week of	March 1-5	4 hour training	Regional Locations Depending on Participant Geography
---------	-----------	-----------------	---

Summary of Lesson Study Activities (choose 1 of the following)

Saturday	May 1	8:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.	Location TBD
Saturday	June 5	8:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.	Location TBD

USOE will provide:

- Substitutes if needed
- Mileage and hotel room for participants traveling over 50 miles
 - Dinner on Friday, Lunch on Saturday
- Focus in High School Mathematics: Reasoning and Sense Making
 - Implementing Standards-Based Mathematics Instruction

Choose from: 2 SUU Credits ($30) OR 2 Free USOE CACTUS Credits

Hotel Reservations:

Crystal Inn: 1-800-366-4466 Give the group code: US0210

USOE will pay for lodging for attendees traveling farther than 50 miles, however, attendees are responsible for reserving rooms with their own credit cards.

To Hold Your Spot:

email your name
and district to

tricia.cook@schools.utah.gov